- Get the Most From Your Days -

We're working here people.

Clear some space where you won't be interrupted.

Grab a hotel room and make an occasion of it - no interruptions from the office or the family. Get food delivered by room service and go out for a nice meal. To get the most from the event you'll need to remove all distractions so you can concentrate 100% on the Intensive.

Sort your technology out.

Get online early. Or better yet, the day before. Make sure you have the latest Zoom updates installed, that your internet connection is solid, and your webcam and microphone are both working. We'll be working in Zoom Breakout Rooms so it'll help if you can see your Zoom buddies and they can see you. So, you know, wear pants. ©

Pack snacks.

Pack some snacks & food for the breaks and have plenty of water handy. The day will flow more easily if you sort your treats out ahead of time.

24 SIMPLE WAYS TO PROTECT YOUR BUSINESS

YES NO	Invoice all larger jobs on percentage complete rather than project stages so supply hold ups don't prevent you from completing a stage and being able to claim. Otherwise, you may be almost completed but unable to claim and your cashflow will be severely affected.
	Change all quotes or bids to be valid for the shortest possible time (e.g., 7 or 14 days instead of 30 days)
YES NO	Include cost increase clauses into your contracts for quotes or bids that are for longer jobs. Discuss this with the client upfront and suggest that the building contractors you price for include something similar in their contracts.
YES NO	Buy materials when job is accepted at today's price and charge the client for the materials at job acceptance so you can guarantee supply and lock your margin in.
YES NO	Communicate 3 times as often with your suppliers about upcoming projects and materials availability. You may need to talk with the supplier almost daily about the "state of play." Remember the "squeaky wheel" gets the oil.
YES NO	Be considerate and helpful when dealing with suppliers as strong supplier relation- ships will be a "secret weapon" in the coming months and years.
YES NO	Increase your target gross profit margin on jobs by 10% to factor in the price increases and potential project delays (increase both Labour rates, material mark-ups and subcontractor mark-ups).
YES NO	Include, or increase, the project management fee you charge to account for all the extra running around sourcing materials and organizing around project delays
	Use an on-line price book direct from your suppliers and ensure that all supply prices are up to date daily.
	Work in with similar businesses in your local area to improve your purchasing power with suppliers

YES	NO	Rent a warehouse and stockpile materials at today's prices. The lease costs
	\Box	may less expensive than the increased material costs and delays to production.
YES	NO	Create accounts with additional suppliers who may have access to different

Script for Booking Service Work

Good morning/ Afternoon...Can I speak with (name) please?

It's (your name) from XYZ Plumbers, how are you today?

(name) the reason for calling is our records show you have a _____(gas heater etc.) that's due for a service.

(name)one of our technicians has time available next Monday or Tuesday (or whatever day you choose) and will be in your area, which day would work better for you?

Arrange details with client.

On Monday we have 10am 4.30pm. (organise a time)

Awesome (name) one of our technicians will be at your house (say address to confirm) on Monday at 10am to service your ______ (gas heater etc). Do you have any other gas appliances that you would like us to inspect while we are there?

Frequently asked questions

- 1. How much will it cost me? (Give the price for service and explain it will cost more depending if it needs repair, any small repairs we will fix on the day. If it needs replacing or we will confirm with you before we undertake the work, is that ok with you?)
- 2. Do I have to be there? Yes...somebody will need to be there to let me in your house.
- 3. How long will it take? Give answer \bigcirc

This script works well because it uses a presumptive close (assumes they will say yes)
